

What You Need To Know About Qatar Airways Baggage Allowance

Qatar Airways is one of the world's leading airlines, offering the most luxurious travel experience. One aspect of this experience that passengers often consider is baggage allowance: how much weight and number of pieces they can carry on board. In this blog post, we'll take a closer look at the details of Qatar Airways' baggage allowance and provide some tips on how to make sure you don't exceed your limit.

About Qatar Airways

Qatar Airways is the flag carrier of Qatar. The airline is headquartered in Doha, Qatar. They operate a hub network and fly to over 150 international destinations from their base at Hamad International Airport. Qatar Airways is a world-class airline known for its five-star service, luxury cabins and extensive baggage allowance. The Doha-based airline offers its passengers a generous baggage allowance, with the option to purchase additional baggage if necessary.

Qatar Airways Baggage Allowance

Qatar Airways baggage allowance refers to the maximum weight or size of baggage that a passenger can carry on a flight. Qatar Airways allows its passengers to carry one carry-on bag and one personal item for free. Additionally, any baggage exceeding these limits will likely need to be checked and will incur an additional charge.

Baggage allowances may vary depending on your route and cabin class. Please refer to the baggage regulations printed on your ticket for more information.

Qatar Airways Hand-In Baggage Allowance Policy

You can take hand luggage on board the cabin during your Qatar Airways flight. Qatar's carry-on baggage allowance is in addition to the regular checked baggage allowance.

Important Points To Remember:

According to Qatar's baggage allowance policy, passengers traveling in First Class or Business Class are allowed to carry two pieces of luggage, not exceeding a total weight of 15 kg (33 lb). Customers traveling in Economy class can carry one piece of luggage, with a weight limit of 7 kg (15 lb).

For tickets issued in Brazil, customers flying to or from Brazil in Economy class may bring one piece of luggage, with a weight limit of 10 kg (22 lb).

Apart from this, each piece of hand luggage may not exceed the maximum dimensions of 50x37x25cm (20x15x10in). The laptop and laptop bag must be subject to Qatar's carry-on baggage allowance.

A number of personal items are allowed on the plane, such as a women's handbag, a small briefcase, a cape or blanket, a coat, an umbrella, a small camera or binoculars, limited reading material and a pair of crutches. . or a cane and a basket to carry the baby. You can also bring duty-free items purchased on the day of your flight.

Gels, liquids, pastes and aerosols in containers of up to 100 ml are allowed in hand luggage. Also, make sure all items fit comfortably in a clear, resealable, quart or liter bag and that it measures no larger than 8 x 8 inches.

There are no restrictions on baby food and medicine when you fly with Qatar Airways. However, you may be required to provide a prescription for any medications you wish to bring on board.

Carry-on Baggage Allowance

Qatar Airways allows carry-on baggage inside the aircraft cabin in addition to the checked baggage allowance. Business or First Class travelers can carry up to two pieces of hand luggage with a maximum weight of 15 kg in total.

Economy class travelers are allowed one carry-on baggage that does not exceed 7 kg in weight. Laptops and their bags/cases are considered part of your carry-on baggage allowance.

Qatar Airways hand luggage rules state that the dimensions of your hand luggage must not exceed 50 x 37 x 25 cm. Please note that these dimensions cannot be exceeded for handles, pockets or wheels that are part of the bag.

Qatar Airways has a strict policy regarding liquids, gels and pastes. Passengers can carry a maximum of 100 ml of liquids, gels or pastes in their hand luggage. Liquids greater than 100 ml must be stored in checked luggage.

Unusual Luggage and Special Allowances

Qatar Airways caters for passengers with special needs, including travelers with medical conditions and disabilities. It is important to notify the airline of your specific needs at the time of booking. This ensures that they can find you an available seat on a flight that suits your needs. Please be sure to complete our online Medical Information Form (MEDIF) at least 48 hours before your scheduled flight departure.

Qatar Airlines complies with the Air Carrier Access Law. You can make requests for certain provisions, such as special meals, wheelchair assistance, storage of medical or assistive devices, seating selection, or special companion services for the visually impaired. While all of this can be helpful, to make travel much more accessible for people with disabilities, call the Luggage Delivery Company for special luggage delivery packages tailored to your specific needs.

Qatar Airways Checked Baggage Allowance Policy

Traveling with luggage can be a bit complicated, especially if you exceed the size or weight limit set by the airline. Be sure to check your airline's baggage guidelines as they may vary.

Important Points To Remember:

The maximum dimensions of checked baggage are length + width + height of 158 cm (per piece) or 300 cm (by weight). A single piece of checked baggage must not weigh more than 32 kg (70 lb). If you exceed the weight and/or piece allowed on your ticket, charges will apply.

In accordance with Qatar Airways checked baggage allowance policies, there is no limit on the number of pieces for routes where the weight concept applies, unless the permitted weight for the total number of pieces is exceeded. However, the airline may impose certain limits depending on the capacity of a given aircraft.

If you fly with an airline other than Qatar Airways, they may have a lower baggage allowance. Airlines follow the guidelines of IATA's Most Significant Marketing Carrier (MSC) rule, which decides how much baggage you are allowed to carry on a codeshare or interline flight. This will apply even if your flight starts or ends in the US or Canada.
